

Sinclair broadcasting should not be allowed to broadcast a political ad disguised as a documentary ("Stolen Honor"). This is an obvious effort to use the public airways in a partisan effort, against election laws and FCC regulations. Too much network consolidation in too few hands is not good for democracy and this a major demonstration of that fact. Sinclair broadcasting should be stopped, censured, fined or receive some punishment other than a slap on the wrist.